1. The Aura & Name Analysis is a process in which Orel analyzes your Aura (Human Energy Field). This analysis is based on different layers of your Aura that relate to distinct areas in your life. Each layer of your Aura has its own energy and color characteristics. The analysis connects your life situation and the information from your Aura to your pre birth soul agreement and past life experiences and can expose connections or problems that are very hard to identify using other means. By using all those unique sources of information, Orel addresses the main points that withhold and cause conflicts in your life. He focuses on the issues that are most relevant at that point in time to the personal development of the individual. The analysis can cover many aspects of life such as health, relationships, work, career, and many more. Depending on the case, the analysis may include some practical advice on how to handle certain situations.
2. To ensure the accuracy of our analysis, you are requested to provide more details that will help to cross check the information that is retrieved from your Aura:

- Your full name: _____

The identification of your aura is done by your full name. Please include current name, previous names, and a middle name if you have one.

- Occupations of you and your spouse, and your gender:

The same Aura patterns have different meanings for different occupations/areas of life and for opposite genders.

- Phone number: _____

Home/land line is preferred. Please add the best time to call according to your time zone.

- To enhance the accuracy of our analysis we also recommend that you provide:

Full names of 3 - 5 other significant people in your life. For each name please indicate the area that this person relates to (e.g. family, mother, brother, spouse, boy friend, colleague at work, boss, etc.)
